Section 3: Supplemental Recruitment Activities

12/06/2017 - Attended Fall Job Fair at Rochester College representing WMUZ-FM/WMUZ-AM/WRDT/WCHB– Sales Assistant and Promotions Manager, Stephanie Tyszkiewicz attended this event, accepting resumes for two positions we were actively looking to fill, full-time Account Executive and Church Sales Specialist. Three qualified candidates provided their resumes for review.

1/22/2018 – Held the required Discrimination and Sexual Harassment Meeting for WMUZ-FM/WMUZ-AM/WRDT/WCHB - With the current climate, it is more important than ever to reiterate with employees what is considered discrimination or harassment and the recourses that are available to them. Twenty-six full-time employees were in attendance and participated in this meeting which was led by General Manager, Frank Franciosi. Operations Manager, Anthony Faletti, ran a separate meeting on Saturday, February 3rd for the part-time work force and three full-time employees that were sick on 1/22/18.

2/01/2018 – Attended Career Fair at Specs Howard School of Broadcasting sponsored by MAB representing WMUZ-FM/ WMUZ-AM/WRDT/WCHB – Executive Assistant, Linda Martens attended this event accepting applications for three positions being actively recruited for; Account Executive, Church Sales Specialist and Sales Assistant. The information about the MABF Broadcast Media Fair was widely disseminated and marketed, including distribution to resources with a high volume of diverse candidates; including but not limited to State of Michigan career sites, veteran affairs organizations, Michigan Works locations throughout Michigan, as well as displayed on the official Career Fair website www.michiganbroadcastcareers.com. Spots were aired on WMUZ-FM during the Afternoon Drive programming to announce the Career Fair. The Afternoon Drive Host, Mike McIntyre, an alum of Specs Howard, was also in attendance and broadcast his show live from the event to encourage those looking for a position in broadcast media to attend.

3/15/2018 – Brownie Troop # 75915 Huron Township was given a glimpse into the world of radio by WCHB Host, J Sanford. A group of approximately twenty girls working on their Communications badge were able to participate in a mock broadcast, getting the feel of what it would be like to be an on-air personality and board operator. J. Sanford provided guidelines regarding the education and training needed for the various positions required to run a radio station.

4/11/2018 – Spring Job Fair at Rochester College – Operations Manager, Vito Faletti attended this annual event sponsored Rochester College. We were actively recruiting for Account Executive, Digital and Social Media Coordinator, and part-time Board Operators. Resumes were collected for review by the General Manager for Account Executive and Digital and Social Media Coordinator.
